Splitsville invites Kanata to let the good vibes roll with new centre opening in fall 2024

Oakville, Ontario – Splitsville Entertainment announces the company’s continued growth across Canada with its thirteenth location set to open in Kanata, Ontario in the fall of 2024.

For those looking for fun and excitement, the 26,000 square foot bowling centre located in the Kanata Entertainment Centrum will bring bowling back to life like never before.

- 18 lanes of 10-pin bowling with modern scoring equipment, interactive bowling games, comfortable seating and lane-side food and drink service.
- State-of-the-art arcade to bring out the kid in everyone featuring games from arcade classics to the newest VR technology and an impressive prize redemption counter.
- Bar and lounge with casual dining, pool tables, and all your favourite sports games.

“We are excited to bring Splitsville’s best-in-class bowling and entertainment experience to Kanata. We are a people-first business with a dedication to our team members and our guests, and committed to investing in the communities we operate in,” says Pat Haggerty, President of Splitsville Entertainment.

Bowling is a popular leisure activity among guests of all abilities and ages, from three to ninety-three, because of the game’s unique blend of inclusive competitive socializing. From family groups to birthday parties, and bowling leagues to corporate events, gathering on the lanes is great fun for all! Add glow in the dark bowling, food and beverages, and you have the ultimate experience to socialize and make new memories.
