Canada's premier bowling entertainment centre rolls into the prairies

Oakville, Ontario – Splitsville Entertainment announces the company's continued growth across Canada with the acquisition of an entertainment centre in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. The Stoked Centre (Stoked) features an exciting line-up of activities including bowling, arcade, indoor go-karts, ropes course and zipline, and offers guests an elevated dining experience in the Stoked Kitchen & Bar. This expands the Splitsville group to 13 centres across Canada, with two new centres being built in Kanata, Ontario and Calgary, Alberta later this year.

"We're thrilled to add Stoked to the Splitsville group as we continue to enhance the family entertainment experience across Canada. This outstanding venue in Saskatoon is not only well established, but the Wilson family have built a centre for their community to come together, and that's what Splitsville is all about," says Pat Haggerty, President of Splitsville Entertainment.

The Stoked Centre will be business as usual, managed by the local team and supported by the Splitsville team. The Saskatoon community can continue to book bowling, go-karts, birthday parties and more online at www.stokedcentre.ca. Reservations for dining and events at the Stoked Kitchen & Bar can be made at www.stokedkb.com.

"We have a shared passion with the Wilson family for offering best-in-class entertainment. Now as part of the Splitsville group, we'll continue to showcase our commitment to enhancing the guest experience and investing in the communities we operate in. We are a people-first business with a dedication to our team members and our guests," adds Haggerty.

Bowling is a popular leisure activity among guests of all abilities and ages, from three to ninety-three, because of the game's unique blend of inclusive competitive socializing. From family groups to birthday parties, and bowling leagues to corporate events, gathering on the lanes is great fun for all! Add glow in the dark bowling, food and beverages, and you have the ultimate experience to socialize and make new memories.
